You're here because you're playing Roblox and you found some games you want to play, in-game bonuses, items, VIP servers, and other cool stuff only obtained through the in-game currency, Robux. However, since Roblox is mostly free-to-play, Roblox developers monetize their games or items to convert the Robux they earn from their creations into real-world money.

The first tier is $4.99 a month and gives a monthly stipend of free 450 Robux. The second tier is $9.99 a month and gives a stipend of free 1,000 Robux. Finally, the third tier is $19.99 a month and gives a stipend of free 2,200 Robux. The bonuses for being a member more than make up for the monthly membership price, so we consider the monthly Robux stipend a way of getting free Robux.

Roblox Corp. recently went public as well, which raised the company's market cap to $38 billion. The company went public via a direct listing instead of an initial public offering and the company's stocks were trading over 40% higher than the price during the private financing round. As the game continues to grow, the developers have a number of things planned for the game, including a display name change update and a voice chat feature.

When you design your own game you have the choice to create private game servers. This means that players can stop others from joining their server so it can be just their personal friends and no randoms. This is done by going to Game Settings, selecting the Monetization tab, toggling the Private Servers, and then you are able to set a price that you want players to pay.
